A letter from Trinidad states that Willie Hatton, oldest son of Mrs. Ed. Hatton, has met with a bad accident and had one of his arms broken in two places. He is now in the C. F. & I. Hospital at Pueblo, Colorado.

If you pay up all arrears, if any, and one year in advance for the Red River Prospector and 25 cents extra, we will send you that great weekly newspaper the Toledo Blade one year. $1.75 for both paper.

A. M. Rucker, a mining expert from Denver, came in last Friday to examine the Cashier and other mining property at Anchor. T. A. Nelson and Geo. Watters went up Saturday to draw the water from the shaft of the Cashier.

Mrs. E. C. Wallace and children and Mrs. Wallace's mother, Mrs. E. A. Snow, left the first of the week for Tucumcari, where her husband, E. C. Wallace, has a position with the railroad company. They are old citizens of Red River, coming here when the town first started and will be missed by all.

L. T. Bryan and Bob Chambers were in camp the latter part of last week. Mr. Bryan is interested in the Gold Mint in Long's Canon on the Rio Hondo side of Gold Hill. He has two or three men at work on the property now. He expects to drive the tunnel two hundred feet further before cutting the lead at the point and depth he is driving for. The lead carries high values in gold.

Al Hedges has begun working for James O. Gill on his property up Columbia. We understand Mr. Gill has finished his assessment but is anxious to cut the lead from his tunnel and is doing some extra work this year.

L. R. Gottlieb, postmaster of Cokeville, Colorado, and his brother, L. Gottlieb, merchant at Trinidad, were in the City yesterday (July 15) stopping over between trans while enroute home from a business visit to Elizabethtown. Mr. L. R. Gottlieb has been associated, for many years past, in business with Julius Uhlfelder at Elizabethtown, but has just disposed of his interest to his partner, who will continue the business — Ratón Reporter.

BEAR ATTACHED TWO SHEEP HERDERS.

Jose Ramon Maestas, twenty-three years of age, and Gomisindo Mezua, twelve years of age, were brought to town last week suffering from painful injuries which they received from a bear. While herding sheep in the Costilla Canon, the two brothers unexpectedly came across a big bear with two cubs. The bear attacked the little fellow, knocking him down and severely biting him on the legs, shoulders and side. In an effort to save his brother the older brother tried to drive the bear away with a club. While doing this the bear turned on him and with teeth and claws injured him very seriously on the thighs, shoulders and stomach. Both boys were brought to San Luis and are now under the care of Dr. Smith who reports they are getting along nicely and will recover. It is later reported that a party of hunters succeeded in killing the bear but that the cub escaped.—San Luis Herald.

C. A. Tler and R. Hancock and their wives all from Dawson, Colfax county, are taking an outing and are camping in town for a week or two.
